

Terms and conditions for membership at

Linnaeus Union

The Student Union at Linnaeus University

By paying the yearly fee, a membership at Linnaeus Union, the Student Union at the Linnaeus University, corporate identity number 829500-9388. Only those registered as a student or doctorate at Linnaeus University (in accordance with Student Unions' Ordinance (2009:769) 4§) are eligible for membership.

Those who purchase a membership are not granted full membership until Linnaeus Union verify that the student is registered at the Linnaeus University. Once verified, the membership is granted in full and the student may download the app containing the membership card.

Before an advice-note from Linnaeus Union is paid, make sure that the printed information is correct. Kindly contact Linnaeus Union if there are any errors in the information or alter the information on your own at the membership page at Linnaeus Union's website.

If you are paying via bank giro or internet bank, always state the OCR number.

Membership at Linnaeus Union is granted when the payment has reached the student union and when the person is verified as a student at Linnaeus University. The student card, which doubles as student ID and proof of full membership status, is available to download in the form of a phone app.

Terminating your membership: Members are at any given moment allowed to terminate their membership at Linnaeus Union by contacting the student union and ask to be removed. Paid membership fee is not refunded. The membership terminates automatically if the membership fee is not paid.

By becoming a member, you approve of Linnaeus Union's policy to maintain a processing record and store your personal data. The personal data of all members are treated in accordance with GDPR \(General Data Protection Regulation\). If a member wishes to know more about their personal data stored at the Linnaeus Union, they are welcome to contact the union. A member is permitted to demand correction of any incorrect data.

Linnaeus Union reserves the right to use any information submitted by a paying member of the union in statutory activities, provision of services, administration, invoicing, customer service, analysis, development, information, marketing, as well as fulfillments stated by law, agreements or authority decisions.

When a member has completed their studies at the Linnaeus University, they are not required to inform Linnaeus Union about the situation.

By paying the membership fee I give my permission to let Linnaeus Union forward my personal information to their card supplier, with the purpose of using it to send out my membership card and to inform me of student exclusive discounts and benefits.

Note! Paid membership is not refunded