STUDENT UNION ELECTION APRIL 25TH - MAY 6TH

Voting in the Student Union elections are students' most important way to influence decisions taken by the Student Union and the university. By voting you empower the Student Union's deciding bodies and help us improve educational quality and student life for everyone. Also, by voting you get a chance to win fine prizes.

LINNAEUS UNION AT LNU-LIVE APRIL 7TH

The Linnaeus Union visits LNU-Live, which is an open lecture that takes place every week in Hus Stella. You will see newly produced films that describe the union's activities. How can the union and the university work together to get more students involved in educational issues? You who are a student - get answers to these questions and take the opportunity to ask questions. NOTE! In Swedish

BECOME A BUDDY

Are you familiar with the Buddy program? Each semester new international students arrive to Kalmar from somewhat 30 countries. As a buddy you may get to know a new international student who may have questions about accommodation, Kalmar as a student city, what not to miss in the region etc. Registration for fall 2022 is now open.

THE MEMBER COFFEE MOVES TO RADIX

From Mar 17 we move our membership coffee from House Stella to House Radix. Specifically to what is called the "Pit", to the left after the entrance. We hope that this will lead to more people coming by and getting to take part in our coffee and offers. Do not forget to check out the website to see our coffee schedule for the rest of the spring.
